Ice Cream Crankin' is cool treat for tasters!

Purity Miss Martha's Ice Cream Crankin' is a cool way to spend Sunday afternoon, June 13, on the shady lawn of First Presbyterian Church.

From 4-6 p.m. you can sample dozens of flavors of homemade ice cream made and served by volunteers. In addition, there will be music and contests at the old fashioned summer social. The contests will include Taster's Choice, The Best Decorated Serving Area, to name a few.

It's not too late to sign up to make ice cream! You could be the "Best of Show" winner, which means your recipe could be one of Purity's new flavors next summer. See Burkley Allen, Crankin' Captains for Second at burknewt@aol.com, for recipe forms, tickets, and more information.

New admission prices this year! Children under 2 are FREE, ages 3 - 12 are $8 each, and adult tickets are $10 per person for all the ice cream you can eat! These prices are pre-event prices. Gate prices are: ages 3 - 12 $10 each, adult tickets are $13 each.

Parking is available at Franklin Road Academy and Judson Baptist Church on Franklin Road with shuttle service to First Presbyterian. Look for designated parking signs.

All proceeds benefit Martha O'Bryan Center, a covenant mission of the Presbytery of Middle Tennessee. On a foundation of Christian faith, the Martha O'Bryan Center empowers children, you, and adults in poverty to transform their lives through work, education, employment and fellowship.
