

Contact: Chad Johnson
Phone: 615-254-1791 x122
E-mail: cjohnson@marthaobryan.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Cayce Residents Grab the Attention of Mayoral
Candidates and a Convenient New Polling Center

"Quality of Life" Mayoral Forum to Focus on Real Issues

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 3, 2007 - On Thursday, May 17, Martha O'Bryan Center, ReDiscover East and the Martha O'Bryan Center-Cayce Family Resource Center Resident Advisory Team invite you to attend the "Quality of Life Mayoral Forum," from 6:00-8:00 p.m. at Martha O'Bryan Center.

All candidates have committed to attending this important event and will be addressing issues like safety, housing, food security and transportation, which affect residents in East Nashville and neighboring communities.

Residents in James A. Cayce Homes turned political activists have become motivated to make a difference on the issues important to them in this year's campaign. Martha O'Bryan Center recently achieved status as an official voting center, and as a result, residents along the Shelby corridor in the high rise complex and Cayce Homes who are elderly, disabled or have no access to transportation will finally have an opportunity to make their voices heard with a convenient voting location in their community.

"Quality of Life" Mayoral Forum
Martha O'Bryan Center
Hope Building Gymnasium
6:00-8:00 p.m.
711 South Seventh Street
Nashville, Tennessee

Founded in 1894, the Martha O'Bryan Center provides integrated services that support families living in poverty as they work to achieve greater self-sufficiency through sustained employment and education. The Center primarily serves the residents of James A. Cayce Homes, Nashville's largest and oldest public housing development, and the surrounding East Nashville area. For more information please visit www.marthaobryan.org.

###